

A Human Rights Approach to Inclusion Health

Claire Sweeney, Director of Place and Wellbeing

Katrina Reid, Health Improvement Manager

Together, we can create a Scotland
where everybody thrives

Our strategic plan, at a glance

Why we are here

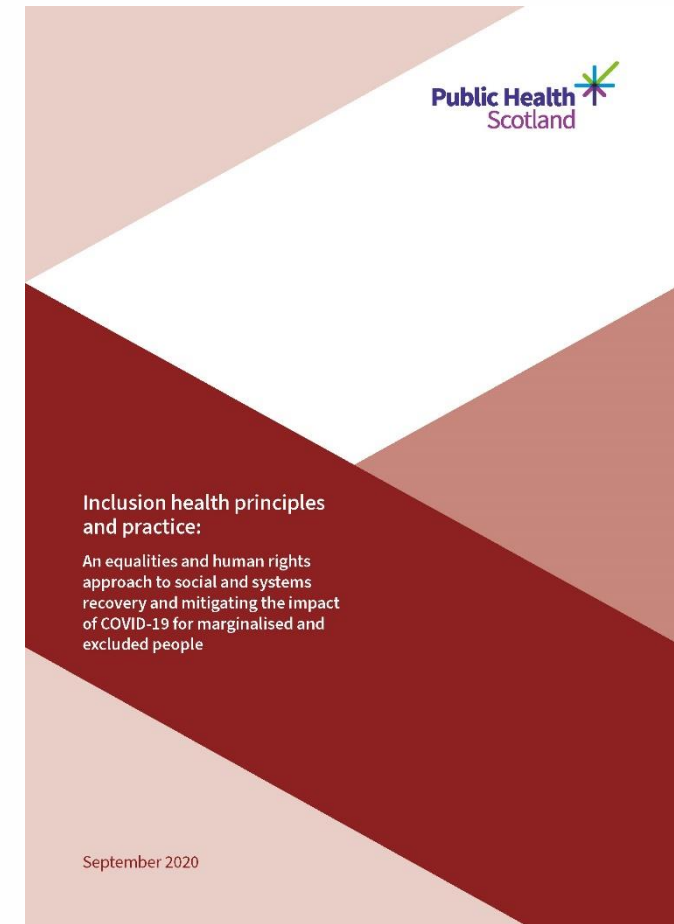

A Scotland where everybody thrives

Inclusion Health Principles and Practice:

An Equalities and Human Rights approach to Social and Systems Recovery and Mitigating the Impact of COVID-19 for Marginalised and Excluded People.

- Inclusion Health Group
- Social and Systems Recovery from COVID-19 programme

Inclusion Health (Marmot)

“A service, research and policy agenda that aims to prevent and redress health and social inequities among the most vulnerable and excluded populations by taking a human rights based approach”

- This includes the protection of the fundamental right to health, which is the right of everyone to the highest attainable standard of physical and mental health.
- Intersectionality

A human rights based approach

AAAQ Framework

- Accessible
- Available
- Appropriate
- high Quality.

PANEL principles

- Participation
- Accountability
- Non-discrimination and Equity
- Empowerment
- Legality.

<https://www.publichealthscotland.scot/media/2832/inclusion-health-principles-and-practice.pdf>

Accessible, Appropriate, Available, High Quality

Engaging with lived experience

- Understanding impact on right to health for marginalised communities
- Participative research methods
- Strategic collaboration

Inclusive Communication

- The Charter of Patients Rights and Responsibilities
- Digital Inclusion
  - Homelessness & Primary Care
  - Gypsy Travellers

Accessible research

- Ensuring representative reach of PHS surveys
- Beyond digital access
- Sharing good practice/learning

what we're going to do

lead collaboratively

use data

apply evidence measure impact

improve outcomes

Please get in touch.....

Email: healthscotland-placeandequity@nhs.net with the subject header 'FAO Inclusion Health Group'.

