

Celebrating Five Years of SCLWN: Meet Our Conference Speakers

The Scottish Community Link Worker Network (SCLWN) is delighted to announce the confirmed speakers for our 4th Annual Conference, "Rooted in Communities, Growing Together," taking place on 22 September at Dynamic Earth, Edinburgh. This year's event is particularly special as we celebrate five years of the Scottish Community Link Worker Network, bringing together colleagues, partners and supporters from across Scotland for a day of learning, networking and celebration.

Attendees can look forward to an inspiring and exciting programme featuring keynote speakers and sector leaders from across health, social care, research and public service delivery, including:

- Maree Todd MSP, Minister for Mental Wellbeing, Public Health, Sport, Alcohol and Drugs
- Anna Wilding, Research Fellow, University of Manchester Division of Population Health, Health Services Research & Primary Care
- Alison Hannan, Public Services Delivery Scotland
- Dr Eddie Donaghy, Research Fellow, University of Edinburgh, Usher Institute
- Michael Kellett, Director of Strategy, Governance and Performance, Public Health Scotland
- Monica Boulton, Strategic Lead for Healthcare Integration and Neighbourhood Health, National Academy of Social Prescribing
- Roisin Hurst, Project Manager, Scottish Community Link Worker Network
- Tejesh Mistry, Chief Executive, Voluntary Health Scotland

As we celebrate five years of the Scottish Community Link Worker Network, this year's event offers an opportunity to reflect on achievements, share learning and strengthen connections that help communities thrive.

Book your place and join us on 22 September as we come together to celebrate, learn and grow.
